

Approved For Release 2004/09/28 : CIA-RDP88-01314R000100220010-0

TRENDS IN LABOR

► No voice on policy. Demands by editorial-department employees of "The Chicago Sun-Times" and "The Chicago Daily News" for a larger role in deciding news policies were abandoned by the Newspaper Guild. A new contract, approved by union members November 12, gives newsroom workers pay raises of about 7 per cent a year. The union dropped demands for a voice in selecting supervisory editors and for representation on committees deciding editorial and news policies.